DAY 3

Early morning	Route to Pretoria
Morning	Visit of Pretoria (Union Buildings / Freedom Park / Voortrekker Monument) You are here in the Heart of the Afrikaans and African culture. Pretoria is the administrative and diplomatic center of South Africa that also served as the headquarters for the old independent Transvaal Boer Republic. Here you will find some of the iconic landmarks that represent the old independent Transvaal as well as the new democratic South Africa. Union Buildings, the official seat of the national government, house the offices of the South African president and are located atop the Meintjieskop in the Arcadia suburb of Tshwane. An important South African heritage site, the impressive building is surrounded by pretty terraced gardens that offer panoramic views over the city and houses as well as a nine-meter statue of former president Nelson Mandela. Church Square houses Die Raadsaal, the former parliament buildings of the Boer Republic, and the Paul Kruger House was the home of the Transvaal Republic's president. Built in 1949, the Voortrekker Monument embodies the memory and nationalism Afrikaner, the ethnic nation, the supremacy of the Afrikaner people or Volk," wrote in 1999 the South African anthropologist Rehana Vally in an article entitled "The Monument to the Voortrekkers, fifty years later, History of a self-reconciliation. A massive cube of concrete erected on a hill at the entrance of Pretoria, this monument is a kind of secular cathedral built in memory of the pioneers (or trekkers) who participated in the 1830s in what was called "the great trek ". A large Carrara marble frieze recounts the main stages of this adventure: the departure of the Cape from hundreds of families who refused English control over the region and in particular the abolition of slavery, the march into hostile regions, clashes with indigenous tribes and especially the battle of "Bloodriver" during which several thousand Zulu warriors were massacred ... Lunch

	Route to Rovos Rail Station
15h00	Rovos Rail journey beginning "Rovos Rail's unique and exciting Train Safaris through Southern Africa combine magnificent scenery with the glamour of the golden age of rail travel." The story of Rovos Rail is an impressive one. It began in 1989 with one man's dream and determination. Despite several obstacles, Rovos Rail is now a well-established, thriving business with several different itineraries including trips to Victoria Falls, Dar es Salaam and Cairo. Its international reputation for offering truly world-class travel experiences is proof of the enduring nostalgia and romance of train travel in a weary world. Customer will experience one of the most luxurious trains in the world. Dinner and overnight on the train. (Breakfast 07h00-10h00 • Lunch 13h00 • Tea 16h30 • Dinner 19h30)

The Big Hole is the biggest manmade hole ever created. Excavation began in 1871 when the first diamond was discovered, and an entire town sprung up around it, Kimberley, which is today the capital of the Northern Province. Its yesteryear atmosphere is reproduced in an open-air museum next to the Big Hole. Your visit will end with a tram ride. After leaving the diamond city behind, you will come across smaller Karoo towns like Graspan and De Aar. Aptly named « the artery », De Aar is one of the most important railway junctions in South Africa. The name has also been said to refer to the arterial rivers in this area. 12h30 Depart Kimberley and proceed overnight via De Aar and Beaufort West to Matjiesfontein.

DAY 5

Until 18h00	Rovos Rail journey 08h15 Enjoy a visit to the historic village of Matjiesfontein. Here, time has stood still. For the steam trains travelling from Cape Town to Johannesburg, this station was their last chance to fill up with water before traversing the arid Karoo. During the Boer War, this little village and station was also a haven for 20 000 British soldiers. The authenticity of Matjiesfontein invites one to travel back in time to the end of the previous century, to the time of the Boer War and English colonialism. 10h30 The train departs for Cape Town via Touws River and Worcester. 18h00 Arrive at Cape Town Station's Platform 24.
Evening	Route to Table Bay Hotel at V&amp;A Waterfront Dinner Night at Table Bay Hotel

1st option: Guided tour in Cape Town area

DAY 6

08h15	Embark on your guided tour aboard your car: service starts this morning at Table Bay Hotel and ends at Cape Town airport (3 days)
Morning	Robben Island (o) For nearly 400 years, Robben Island, 12 kilometres from Cape Town, was a place of banishment, exile, isolation and imprisonment. It was here at Robben Island that rulers sent those regarded as political troublemakers, social outcasts and the unwanted of society. These days, a trip to Robben Island, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a must-do on the itinerary of any tourist to Cape Town. The prisoners who worked at Robben Island Limestone Quarry over the centuries included Nelson Mandela. At his time, there was no need for the island's limestone. So prisoners had to break up the stone and to carry it to one end of the quarry one day and then back the next. Mandela and his fellow prisoners used their time in the quarry to educate themselves in everything from literature, philosophy, history and current events. The Island is also pretty fascinating from a geographical and environmental perspective. It is actually the peak of a mountain. The rest of the mountain just happens to be under water. Roughly 132 species of bird – including a colony of African Penguins – have made the island their home. Keep an eye out for Crowned Cormorants and Black Crowned Night Herons, which breed on the island in large colonies. During the journey, you can see Cape Fur Seals and Southern Right Whales. On the island itself, you'll find a variety of buck – including Springbok and Eland – and three different species of tortoises!
OR	Please note that a visit to Robben Island always depends on weather conditions. If the weather gets very bad, the ferries won't sail and tours are canceled. In such case we generally propose a visit to one of Cape Town's Townships (Khayelitsha, Vrygrond, Langa) together with a visit of the former residential area of District 6 where about 60.000 people have been forcibly removed in the 1970's by the Apartheid regime.
Afternoon	Depart from the hotel to Table Mountain Cable Car. (O) Table Mountain is one of the oldest mountains in the world at 300 million years, making it 6 times older than Everest and 5 times older than the Rockies. In 2012, Table Mountain was inaugurated as one of the world's 'New7Wonders of Nature'. It is home to a rich bounty of fauna and flora, many species of which are endemic (exclusively native to a specific area) and survive only in the unique ecosystem contained on the slopes. An example of this is the Table Mountain Ghost Frog, an animal that cannot be found anywhere else in the world. Since it's opening in 1929, almost 20 million people have taken the trip to the top of Table Mountain. The Table Mountain cableway has since become something of a landmark in Cape Town.
Evening	Return to Hotel – The Table Bay Hotel Rest – Dinner

DAY 7

08H15	Depart from Hotel to the Foreshore
08H30	Beginning of the tour: Bartolomeu Diaz statue at the northern end of the Foreshore By car: Statues of Jan Van Riebeeck and Maria de la Queillerie; The Robert Falcon Scott memorial; Great War memorial; Wagenaar Water Reservoir The Castle of Good Hope; The City Hall; King Edward VII Statue and the War Memorial; The Grand Parade; The Customs House; Groote Kerk; Walking: Statue of "Onze Jan Hofmeyr"; The Old Slave Lodge; Jan Smuts Statue; St George's Cathedral; The Houses of Parliament; S.A. Library; Tuynhuys; The Great Synagogue; S.A. National Gallery; S.A. Museum; Cecil J. Rhodes statue; Sire George Grey Statue; Bertram House;
11:30	By Car: Mount Nelson Hotel; The Noon Gun; Signal Hill Up on Signal Hill at 12:00 exactly every day, a cannon is fired. The daily noon gun (cannon) is not only Cape Town's oldest living tradition, but the guns used (there are two of them, just in case one of them fails) are two of the oldest in the world still in daily use. The gun was fired for the first time in 1806. It was used as a signal (hence Signal Hill) to ships in Table Bay. These are the oldest guns in daily use in the world. The noon gun has been one constant in Cape Town's colourful and ever-changing history, with the tradition surviving colonial occupations, wars, and apartheid. Two guns are loaded daily (in case of a misfire – although that's rumoured to have only happened once in 200 years!) with 1.5kg of gunpowder. The cannneer raises a flag, and tells the story of the gun and its history. Then, at precisely noon, the gun is fired. Customer to please ensure to protect his ears as the bang is very loud.
13h00 14h30	Lunch
Afternoon	Drive to Bo-Kaap

	Hidden in central Cape Town is the Bo-Kaap. It is a multicultural area, with brightly colored houses from the nineteenth and seventeenth century, Muslim saints shrines (“kramats”) and many beautiful “Mosques” including the first established Muslim Mosque in South Africa. The earliest development in the Bo Kaap area was undertaken in the 1760s by a chap called Jan de Waal. Subsequently, the area became known as Waalendorp. It has also been known as the Malay Quarter, the Slamse Buurt, and Scotcheskloof. Translated from Afrikaans, Bo Kaap means ‘Above the Cape’. The area is filled with history. A visit to the museum gives a good view of the past and of the architectural heritage. Walking: The Bo-Kaap; Greenmarket Square and Old Town House; Metropolitan Methodist Church and Lutheran Church; Koopmans De Wet House;

The true southernmost point of Africa is at Cape Agulhas, located on the Garden Route of South Africa over 200 km away. The Cape of Good Hope is actually the most south-western tip of South Africa.  Bartholomeu Dias, the Portuguese seafarer, was the first European to sail around the Cape in 1488. On his return voyage, he stopped at the south-western tip of South Africa, and named it Cabo Tormentoso, (Cape of Storms). King John of Portugal later gave it the name Cabo da Boa Esperança (Cape of Good Hope).
