DETAILED ITINERARY

During customers' stay in Cape Town area, we propose two options trip:

- One fully guided from their arrival at Cape Town until their departure from Cape Town.
- One in self-drive (as for the rest of the voyage).

Both options will be presented in our detailed itinerary shown here after.

For the rest of the voyage, the self-drive is proposed. Please contact us if you are interested in a complete fully guided journey.

1st option: Guided tour in Cape Town area

DAY 1

Morning	Cape Town International Airport Embark on your guided tour aboard your car: service starts this morning at Cape Town International Airport and ends at Cape Town airport - 3 days Depart from the Airport to Rockwell All Suite Hotel along the N2. Rest including lunch at the Hotel.
Afternoon	Ship to Robben Island – 15h00 For nearly 400 years, Robben Island, 12 kilometers from Cape Town, was a place of banishment, exile, isolation and imprisonment. It was here at Robben Island that rulers sent those regarded as political troublemakers, social outcasts and the unwanted of society. These days, a trip to Robben Island, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a must-do on the itinerary of any tourist to Cape Town. The prisoners who worked at Robben Island Limestone Quarry over the centuries included Nelson Mandela. At his time, there was no need for the island's limestone. So prisoners had to break up the stone and to carry it to one end of the quarry one day and then back the next. Mandela and his fellow prisoners used their time in the quarry to educate themselves in everything from literature, philosophy, history and current events. The Island is also pretty fascinating from a geographical and environmental perspective. It is actually the peak of a mountain. The rest of the mountain just happens to be under water. Roughly 132 species of bird – including a colony of African Penguins – have made the island their home. Keep an eye out for Crowned Cormorants and Black Crowned Night Herons, which breed on the island in large colonies. During the journey, you can see Cape Fur Seals and Southern Right Whales. On the island itself, you'll find a variety of buck – including Springbok and Eland – and three different species of tortoises!
OR	Please note that a visit to Robben Island always depends on weather conditions. If the weather gets very bad, the ferries won't sail and tours are canceled. In such case we can postpone the visit to another day. We also do generally propose a visit to one of Cape Town's Townships (Khayelitsha, Vrygrond, Langa) together with a visit of the former residential area of District 6 where about 60.000 people have been forcibly removed in the 1970's by the Apartheid regime.
Evening	Dinner at Rockwell Dinner Theatre (Ex Richards Supper Stage) This exciting theatre and dinner venue is located in Seapoint and features talented artists performing in a variety of shows from cabaret to jazz to comedy. With a view of Robben Island through the large windows and seating at sociable dinner tables, enjoy a lively evening accompanied by Cape wines and an exclusive buffet loaded with local Cape-style cuisine.
	Return to the hotel - Rockwell All Suite Hotel – Night

DAY 2

08h30	Depart from the hotel to Table Mountain Cable Car
Morning	Depart from the hotel to Table Mountain Cable Car. Table Mountain is one of the oldest mountains in the world at 300 million years, making it 6 times older than Everest and 5 times older than the Rockies. In 2012, Table Mountain was inaugurated as one of the world's 'New7Wonders of Nature'. It is home to a rich bounty of fauna and flora, many species of which are endemic (exclusively native to a specific area) and survive only in the unique ecosystem contained on the slopes. An example of this is the Table Mountain Ghost Frog, an animal that cannot be found anywhere else in the world. Since its opening in 1929, almost 20 million people have taken the trip to the top of Table Mountain. The Table Mountain cableway has since become something of a landmark in Cape Town.
	Lunch
Afternoon	Tour of Historic Cape Town Beginning of the tour: Bartolomeu Diaz statue at the northern end of the Foreshore By car: Statues of Jan Van Riebeeck and Maria de la Queillerie; The Robert Falcon Scott memorial; Great War memorial; Wagenaar Water Reservoir The Castle of Good Hope; The City Hall; King Edward VII Statue and the War Memorial; The Grand Parade; The Customs House; Groote Kerk; Coffee Break Walking: Statue of "Onze Jan Hofmeyr"; The Old Slave Lodge; Jan Smuts Statue; St George's Cathedral; The Houses of Parliament; S.A. Library; Tuynhuys; The Great Synagogue; S.A. National Gallery; S.A. Museum; Cecil J. Rhodes statue; Sire George Grey Statue; Bertram House; Drive to Bo-Kaap Hidden in central Cape Town is the Bo-Kaap. It is a multicultural area, with brightly colored houses from the nineteenth and seventeenth century, Muslim saints shrines ("kramats") and many beautiful "Mosques" including the first established Muslim Mosque in South Africa. The earliest development in the Bo Kaap area was undertaken in the 1760s by a chap called Jan de Waal. Subsequently, the area became known as Waalendorp. It has also been known as the Malay Quarter, the Slamse Buurt, and Scotcheskloof. Translated from Afrikaans, Bo Kaap means 'Above the Cape'. The area is filled with history. A visit to the museum gives a good view of the past and of the architectural heritage. Walking: The Bo-Kaap; Greenmarket Square and Old Town House; Metropolitan Methodist Church and Lutheran Church; Koopmans De Wet House;

The true southernmost point of Africa is at Cape Agulhas, located on the Garden Route of South Africa over 200 km away. The Cape of Good Hope is actually the most south-western tip of South Africa. Bartholomeu Dias, the Portuguese seafarer, was the first European to sail around the Cape in 1488. On his return voyage, he stopped at the south-western tip of South Africa, and named it Cabo Tormentoso, (Cape of Storms). King John of Portugal later gave it the name Cabo da Boa Esperança (Cape of Good Hope).

Inside it is well furnished with items from the early 1900s and decorated in clean Art Deco lines that were considered modern at the time.
